FREEDOM TRAIN

SUPER SCIENTIFIC CIRCUS

Dragons Love Tacos & Other Stories

Thursday, October 5, 2017
10:00am & 12:15pm

Five beloved children's stories come to life in an exciting musical revue! From "Cowgirl Kate and Cocoa School Days" to "Interrupting Chicken," "Mercy Watson Goes for a Ride," and contemporary classics like "The Dot," join the adventure and delve into your favorite storybooks. Recommended for grades K-5 in connection with the FCPS language arts curriculum.

Super Scientific Circus

Friday, October 27, 2017
10:00am & 12:15pm

Amazing feats for children and adults alike! Mr. Fish and Trent the Mime present seemingly impossible circus tricks using boomerangs, bubbles, and beach balls to uncover the science behind the magic: friction, inertia, centripetal force, and more! Recommended for grades 2-5 in connection with the FCPS science curriculum.

Junie B. Jones

Wednesday, November 29, 2017
10:00am & 12:15pm

Hooray, hooray! Everyone's favorite first grader is back in a musical combining three Junie B. classics. From new friend woes to lunch lady hairnets and a one-man band, it's all captured in her Top-Secret Personal Beeswax Journal. (Know what? She might even like first grade, after all!) Recommended for grades K-5 in connection with the FCPS language arts curriculum.

Maryland Ensemble Theatre's Fun Company presents

A Christmas Carol

Tuesday, December 12, 2017 &
Wednesday, December 13, 2017
10:00am

Ebenezer Scrooge, Bob Cratchit, and the Christmas spirits arrive on the Weinberg stage in a traditional retelling of the classic novel by Charles Dickens. A show for all ages, experience the beloved holiday story with a message that never grows old. Recommended for grades 5-10 in connection with the FCPS language arts curriculum.

Freedom Train

Monday, January 22, 2018
10:00am & 12:15pm

Explore the true story of Harriet Tubman and her journey to guide over 300 slaves to freedom along the Underground Railroad. Featuring traditional African American spirituals like "Follow the Drinking Gourd," experience a musical retelling honoring the power of the human spirit. Recommended for grades 3-9 in connection with the FCPS social studies curriculum.

Pirate School: The SCIENCE of Pirates!

Friday, February 9, 2018
10:00am & 12:15pm

Ahoy, matey! Seafarers have pushed science and technology forward throughout all of history. Now, swashbuckling and comedy converge on the high seas to explore math, engineering, and more through sailboat aerodynamics, nautical navigation, and – of course – the flight of a cannonball! Recommended for grades K-5 in connection with the FCPS math and science curriculum.

My Father's Dragon

Monday, March 12, 2018
10:00am & 12:15pm

When nine-year-old Elmer Elevator hears of a baby dragon being held captive on the fearsome Wild Island, he sets off on an adventure like no other. Enchanting special effects, humor, and an unlikely friendship combine as the beloved Newbery-winning book series roars to life onstage. Recommended for grades K-5 in connection with the FCPS language arts curriculum.

Goodnight, Goodnight, Construction Site — The Musical

Monday, April 16, 2018
10:00am & 12:15pm

Bedtime is approaching, and this construction team needs its rest... but Crane is getting cranky, Cement Mixer takes too long with bathtime, and Dump Truck just isn't sleepy! Will they get some shut-eye in time for tomorrow's work? Don't miss a world premiere musical based on the bestselling book. Recommended for grades pre K-3 in connection with the FCPS language arts curriculum.
