Frances “Baby” Houseman, a privileged daddy’s girl, spends the summer at a resort in upstate New York’s Catskill Mountains. Baby’s family expects her to go to college, join the Peace Corps, and marry a doctor. However, Baby becomes infatuated with the resort’s dance instructor, Johnny Castle, a man whose means are vastly different from her own. Baby and Johnny’s lives entangle when she fills in as his dance partner — their chemistry is undeniable and they fall in love, but everything crumbles when Baby’s parents find out. The film is rated PG-13 for sexuality and violence with a total runtime of 100 minutes.

The Flying Dog Film Series is sponsored by Flying Dog Brewery. A complete listing of artists and performers scheduled for the 2017-2018 season can be found at WeinbergCenter.org.
