Weinberg's Pay-What-You-Want Series Continues with The Commonheart

FREDERICK, Md., Wednesday, October 18, 2017 — Ten-piece ensemble The Commonheart will bring the blues to the Weinberg Center for the Arts on Thursday, November 2 at 7:30pm. The performance continues the Weinberg Center's Tivoli Discovery Series, which presents emerging artists of varying genres.

The Tivoli Discovery Series is pay-what-you-want with a suggested donation of $10. Tickets may be reserved in advance at WeinbergCenter.org, by calling 301.600.2828, or in person at 20 West Patrick Street. Tickets will also be available at the door.

With gritty vocals over rock riffs and horns, The Commonheart delivers an emotion-packed, soulful sound that lights up any stage. Frontman Clinton Clegg is a powerhouse who commands full attention with his limitless onstage energy and vocal range. Their new album "Grown" is a remarkable display of each member's talent, interlacing heavy blues, soul, and gospel influences across trumpet, saxophone, keys, guitar, and singers. The Commonheart's sound is a true testament to the past while holding its own as one of today's most promising acts.

The Tivoli Discovery Series is sponsored by the Tivoli Society of the Weinberg Center for the Arts. A complete listing of artists and performers scheduled for the 2017-2018 season can be found at WeinbergCenter.org.

ABOUT THE WEINBERG CENTER FOR THE ARTS

The Weinberg Center for the Arts is one of the region's premier performing arts presenters, offering film, music, dance, theater, and family-focused programming. Located in the historic Tivoli movie theater in downtown Frederick, Md., the Weinberg Center strives to ensure that the arts remain accessible and affordable to local and regional audiences alike. Weinberg Center events are made possible with major support from the City of Frederick, the Maryland State Arts Council, Plamondon Hospitality Partners, and other corporate and individual donors.
