FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Eagles Classic “Hotel California” Comes to Weinberg Center

FREDERICK, Md., Monday, October 2, 2017 — Classic Albums Live will present the classic Eagles album “Hotel California,” note for note, cut for cut, on Friday, October 20 at the Weinberg Center for the Arts. The concert will feature the entire album, including hit singles “Wasted Time” and “New Kid in Town,” followed by a selection of other Eagles favorites. The performance is scheduled for 8:00pm.

Tickets begin at $25 and may be purchased online at WeinbergCenter.org, by calling the Box Office at 301.600.2828, or in person at 20 West Patrick St. Discounts are available for students, children, military, and seniors.

Classic Albums Live takes classic albums from the 60s and 70s and recreates them live on stage - note for note, cut for cut. Using the world's best musicians, fans are treated to an exact replication of the album followed by a second set of the featured artist's greatest hits. Musicians are chosen according to their sound and their fit into a particular niche, be it David Bowie, Pink Floyd, The Beatles, or The Stones. The album might require a sitar player, a children's choir, a string quartet or someone to ring the alarm clock. Whatever it takes, the musicians treat these revered albums like a score... the way a symphony orchestra treats Mozart.

The Weinberg Center for the Arts’ Classic Albums Live events are sponsored by First Energy Foundation. A complete listing of artists and performers scheduled for the 2017-2018 season can be found at WeinbergCenter.org.
