FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

1925 Silent Film "The Big Parade" Back on the Big Screen

FREDERICK, Md., Wednesday, March 28, 2018 — The Weinberg Center for the Arts will continue its beloved Silent Film Series with a screening of “The Big Parade” on April 14 at 8:00pm. The 1925 film is notable for its pioneering cinematic depiction of war that influenced a number of subsequent films, including “All Quiet on the Western Front.” The screening will be accompanied by live music played on the theater’s mighty Wurlitzer organ.

Tickets are $5-7 and may be purchased online at WeinbergCenter.org, or by calling the Box Office at 301.600.2828, or in person at 20 West Patrick St. Discounts are available for students, children, military, and seniors.

A complete listing of artists and performers scheduled for the 2017-2018 season can be found at WeinbergCenter.org.

ABOUT THE WEINBERG CENTER FOR THE ARTS

The Weinberg Center for the Arts is one of the region’s premier performing arts presenters, offering film, music, dance, theater, and family-focused programming. Located in the historic Tivoli movie theater in downtown Frederick, Md., the Weinberg Center strives to ensure that the arts remain accessible and affordable to local and regional audiences alike. Weinberg Center events are made possible with major support from the City of Frederick, the Maryland State Arts Council, Plamondon Hospitality Partners, and other corporate and individual donors.
