FREDERICK, MD, Friday, October 26, 2018 — The Sicilian Tenors, the international singing sensations who blend classic opera with Rat Pack shenanigans, will be recording their first television special on Sunday, November 25 at 3 p.m. at the Weinberg Center for the Arts.

Tickets begin at $20 and may be purchased online at WeinbergCenter.org, by calling the Box Office at 301-600-2828, or in person at 20 West Patrick Street. Discounts are available for students, children, military, and seniors.

“We sing all throughout the country, but I’m really looking forward to doing this very special show at the Weinberg Center, in Frederick Maryland,” said Sicilian Tenor Sam Vitale. “Not only is Frederick my hometown, but it’s a very special, beautiful city, and the Weinberg Center is one of those classic theatres that only exist in special places throughout this country.”

At the concert, The Sicilian Tenors will perform traditional Italian classics such as O Sole Mio, Funiculi Funicula, among others, along with songs from The Rat Pack, Phantom of the Opera and a Tribute to Service. “We are going to give our all, and present a great show accompanied by our Music Director Vito DiSalvo, who will be conducting The Sicilian Tenors Orchestra on music from Italy, to Broadway and all places in between,” said Vitale. “We are all very excited about sharing this with Public TV audiences across the country!” Video of the Sicilian Tenors is available here
