Delaplaine Foundation Awards Weinberg Center for the Arts Grant to Benefit Local Veterans

FREDERICK, MD, Wednesday, January 8 – The Weinberg Center for the Arts’ free ticket initiative for area veterans, Vets’ Night Out, will continue in 2019. The program is made possible through a generous grant from the Delaplaine Foundation. Vets’ Night Out seeks to provide a memorable arts experience for Frederick area veterans and their families by providing free tickets to Weinberg Center performances.

“We are so grateful to the Delaplaine Foundation for their generosity to the Weinberg Center,” said Manager of Development Rebecca O’Leary. “We’ve had an overwhelmingly positive response to this program. This program will not only help us thank our veterans for their service, but it also provides a social, arts-based activity to boost camaraderie in the local veteran community. We can’t thank the Delaplaine Foundation enough for their support as we enter the program’s fourth year.”

Interested area veterans are asked to contact Jef Cliber at boxoffice@weinbergcenter.org or 301.600.2835 to learn more about participating in the program and available performances.

A complete listing of artists and performers scheduled for the 2018-2019 season can be found at WeinbergCenter.org.

ABOUT THE WEINBERG CENTER FOR THE ARTS

The Weinberg Center for the Arts is one of the region’s premier performing arts presenters, offering film, music, dance, theater, and family-focused programming. Located in the historic Tivoli movie theater in downtown Frederick, Md., the Weinberg Center strives to ensure that the arts remain accessible and affordable to local and regional audiences alike. Weinberg Center events are made possible with major support from the City of Frederick, the Maryland State Arts Council, Plamondon Hospitality Partners, and other corporate and individual donors.
