FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Classic Albums Live Returns to the Weinberg Center with The Beatles-Abbey Road

FREDERICK, MD, Friday, April 4, 2019 — Classic Albums Live returns to the Weinberg Center for the Arts, May 3, 2019 at 8:00 PM with their note-for-note, cut-for-cut recreation of The Beatles-Abbey Road.

Tickets begin at $30 and may be purchased online at WeinbergCenter.org, by calling the Box Office at 301-600-2828, or in person at 20 West Patrick Street. Discounts are available for students, children, military, and seniors.

More than forty years after The Beatles recorded Abbey Road, their final studio album, a hand-picked collection of world-class musicians have come together to perform the masterpiece in its entirety. Abbey Road will be performed cover-to-cover, bringing iconic tracks such as “Something,” “Come Together,” and “Here Comes the Sun” to life.

Craig Martin, founder of Classic Albums Live said, “We’ve all read so much into the way the Beatles ended, but this album is the testament. It shows how giving and caring they were with each other. The four of them deeply involved with each other’s songs. That’s beautiful, that’s the power of music.....Abbey road was released in October 1969. As a generation said goodbye to 10 years of heavy change this album led us all across a new road and into another decade.....You have to love this album to perform this album properly. We do. We know how to play this album. We care about this album.”

Founded in 2003 by Toronto musician Martin, Classic Albums Live has earned a stellar reputation for perfectly recreating classic albums from the 60’s and 70’s, live on stage, note-for-note, cut-for-cut.
