FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Livingston Taylor Headlines the 2019 Maryland Folk Festival at the Weinberg Center

FREDERICK, MD, August 28, 2019 - The 2019 Maryland Folk Festival returns to the Weinberg Center for the Arts on Saturday, September 28, 2019 at 7:30 PM. Headlining this year is legendary musical artist, Livingston Taylor. Additional acts include local folk musicians Dry Town, The Hazards, Lea & Keith Koan and a performance by The Frederick County Elementary School All-Star Band.

This event is presented by Key West Productions and is sponsored by the Frederick Acoustic Music Enterprise (FAME). Tickets start at $30 and may be purchased online at WeinbergCenter.org, by calling the Box Office at 301-600-2828, or in person at 20 West Patrick Street.

Livingston Taylor picked up his first guitar at age 13, beginning a 50-year career that has encompassed performance, songwriting and teaching. Born in Boston and raised in North Carolina, he is the fourth child in a very musical family that includes brother James Taylor, the legendary musical artist. Livingston recorded his first record at the age of 18 and has continued to create well-crafted, introspective and original songs, earning him listeners worldwide. He's written Top-40 hits and his musical knowledge has inspired a varied repertoire in a range of musical genres. Livingston has shared the stage with major artists such as Joni Mitchell, Linda Ronstadt, Fleetwood Mac, Jimmy Buffett, and Jethro Tull, and he maintains a busy concert schedule, touring internationally. Livingston is a full professor at the prestigious Berklee College of Music, where he has taught a stage performance course since 1989.
