FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Steel Wheels Bring Original Acoustic Roots Sound to the Weinberg Center

FREDERICK, MD, September 9, 2019 — Music will flow freely from the stage with this Virginia-based acoustic roots music collective when The Steel Wheels perform at the Weinberg Center for the Arts on Saturday, October 5, 2019 at 8:00 PM.

Tickets are $25 in advance, $30 the day of the event and may be purchased online at WeinbergCenter.org, by calling the Box Office at 301-600-2828, or in person at 20 West Patrick Street. Discounts are available for students, children, military, and seniors.

The Steel Wheels recently released their 7th full-length album, "Over The Trees." Recorded with producer Sam Kassirer, it draws attention to the impeccable harmonies of the four original members: Trent Wagler (guitar/banjo), Eric Brubaker (fiddle), Brian Dickel (bass), and Jay Lapp (guitars/mandolin). Kevin Garcia, who plays multiple percussion instruments, keyboard, and mallet-based instruments, formally joined the band after the 2017 release of "Wild as We Came Here," which Kassirer also produced. In addition to familiar-to-fans harmonies, The Steel Wheels ventured a little farther out of their known comfort zone for "Over The Trees," making it a collection of songs about surviving tragedy. The album release coincided with the band's Red Wing Roots Music Festival, which they have hosted and curated for seven years. The community of Red Wing and the greater community of Steel Wheels fans have been the driving factor of what sets the band apart from their contemporaries and peers in a densely populated digital age.
