FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Wailers Bring a Slice of Music History to the Weinberg Center Stage

FREDERICK, MD, August 29, 2019 —Led by renowned bassist and founder Aston “Familyman” Barrett, and joined by original Wailers guitarist Donald Kinsey, The Wailers bring their unique and innovative sound to the Weinberg Center for the Arts on Sunday, September 29, 2019 at 7:30 PM. They will be performing the 40th Anniversary of SURVIVAL plus a second set of classics.

Tickets are $25.50 in advance, $37.50 the day of the event and may be purchased online at WeinbergCenter.org, by calling the box office at 301-600-2828, or in person at 20 West Patrick Street. Discounts are available for students, children, military, and seniors.

In tribute to the late co-founder and drummer Carlton “Carly” Barrett, The Wailers present Familyman’s multi-talented son, Aston Barrett Jr. who delivers with his uncle’s inspiring landmark “one drop” drumming style. Also on stage is polished background singer Shema McGregor, daughter of I Three singer Judy Mowatt and Reggae pioneer Freddie McGregor. Accompanying the legends and children-of-legends on stage are many other talented musicians: bass guitarist Owen “Dreadie” Reid; front man Joshua David Barrett; Andres Lopez on keyboards; and Anne-Marie Thompson, an experienced gospel singer. FOH/Sound engineer is Christian Cowlin, a Wailers Band veteran who has traveled the world with The Wailers for more than 20 years and who is responsible for the band’s live sound.
