Lightwire Theater Returns to the Weinberg Stage with ‘A Very Electric Christmas’

FREDERICK, MD, November 4, 2019 — Returning to the Weinberg stage this holiday season, America’s Got Talent semi-finalists, Lightwire Theater, bring fun family entertainment with a performance of A Very Electric Christmas on Sunday, December 1, 2019 at 2 PM.

Tickets start at $15 and may be purchased online at WeinbergCenter.org, by calling the box office at 301-600-2828, or in person at 20 West Patrick Street. Discounts are available for students, children, military, and seniors.

Since rising to national acclaim on “America’s Got Talent” Lightwire Theater has gone on to enthrall audiences worldwide with their unique combination of skill and grace, as told through the technological innovations of moving light characters. Ian and Eleanor Carney along with Corbin and Whitney Popp, creators of the show, came together through a mutual love of art, theater and technology. After discovering electroluminescent (EL) wire, the lights turned on and the possibilities seemed endless. People of all ages are captivated by the dazzling visuals and unique menagerie of characters that magically appear out of the darkness. Combining the arts and puppetry, theater and dance with the music of timeless holiday hits, Lightwire Theater’s “A Very Electric Christmas” creates a magical and captivating tale of family, friendship and hope.
