FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Deanna Bogart Brings Her Trademark Blusion Sound to the Weinberg Center

FREDERICK, MD, November 25, 2019 — Immerse yourself in the best of boogie-woogie, contemporary blues, country and jazz, known as Deanna Bogart's “blusion” at the Weinberg Center for the Arts on Saturday, December 28, 2019 at 8 PM.

Tickets are $25 in advance and $30 day of the performance and may be purchased online at WeinbergCenter.org, by calling the box office at 301-600-2828, or in person at 20 West Patrick Street. Discounts are available for students, children, military, and seniors.

Deanna Bogart is one of those artists everyone wants to claim — her hometown, her fans, her fellow musicians and even her instruments. She’s that good and equally as good-natured. Born in Detroit, she spent her early years in Phoenix and New York City. Bogart was creating music on her own terms as early as the age of six, when she was “gently removed” from the Brooklyn Conservatory of Music for playing piano by ear instead of learning to read music. Today, it’s Bogart’s uniqueness that sets her apart from the rest. She’s a multifaceted musician whose fans value the diversity of her genre-free zone. An award-winning, multi-instrumentalist who can check off the boxes beside bandleader, singer, songwriter, producer, pianist and sax player, Bogart creates her own splendid blend of music she calls “blusion.” In addition to performing on land and at sea on chartered cruises, she is an avid educator and mentor, sharing her insight and wisdom with students of all ages.
