FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Country Music Singer/Songwriter Jerrod Niemann comes to the Weinberg Stage

FREDERICK, MD, October 12, 2021 - Stretching country music's modern and elastic boundaries with a sound that stands out from the crowd, singer/songwriter, Jerrod Niemann, comes to the Weinberg Center for the Arts in Frederick, Maryland on Friday, November 12, 2021 at 8:00 PM.

Tickets start at $40 and may be purchased online at WeinbergCenter.org, by calling the box office at 301-600-2828, or in person at 20

West Patrick Street. Discounts are available for students, children, military, and seniors.

After nearly a decade as a major label artist, prolific hitmaker Jerrod Niemann has embarked on a journey of his own with his LOST & FOUND project. For the first time in two years, Niemann is releasing brand-new music – with his latest track wrapping up the project, “A Lifetime of Dancin' to Do.” Continuing to pave his own path, the tune joins four other standout tracks from 2020 – “Tequila Kisses,” “Ghost Rider,” “The Blame” and “It Won't Be Me” – all of which make up LOST & FOUND. These latest releases follow his patriotic anthem, “Old Glory” (2018), and full-length album, THIS RIDE (2017). Throughout his career, Niemann has racked up multiple accolades, from his PLATINUM #1 smash “Lover, Lover” and GOLD-certified Top 5 “What Do You Want” off his critically acclaimed major label debut, JUDGE JERROD & THE HUNG JURY, to his PLATINUM anthem “Drink to That All Night” – a multi-week #1 from the 2014 album HIGH NOON. With ACM, CMA, and CMT Award nominations under his belt and headlining and touring stints with some of Country's hottest acts – Dierks Bentley, Brad Paisley, and Keith Urban – Niemann continues to make his mark by creatively pushing boundaries, while still offering a sincere nod to the legends before him.
