The husband-and-wife team that comprise Thompson Square, Keifer and Shawna Thompson, are known as the pinnacle of modern country romance. Joining forces and falling in love after competing against each other at a local signing contest 20 years ago, the Thompson's began to produce their signature love-soaked ballads independently as they fell in love and rose to fame. Their single "Are You Going to Kiss Me or Not," released in 2011, catapulted the couple to fame. The duo signed a record deal and signed on to tour internationally with country superstars Lady A, and Jason Aldean. Along the way Thompson Square released 4 more singles that reached the Billboard charts, "I Got You" (2011), "Glass" (2011), "Everything I Shouldn't Be Thinking About" (2013), and "If I Didn't Have You" (2013). The duo's return to the music industry after the birth of their son Cooper brings, Masterpiece, their first independent release since 2011. Masterpiece is a chronical of the couple's journey to stardom, parenthood, and everything in between. The album is a fusion of country, R&B, pop, power rock, and reggae that exemplifies the musicality, diversity, and heart that fans have come to love from Thompson Square.
