Air Play Brings Breathtaking Homage to the Power of Air to Weinberg Center

FREDERICK, MD, Wednesday, March 23, 2022 — With stunning images and gales of laughter, Air Play by Acrobuffos is part comedy, part sculpture, part circus and part theater transforming ordinary objects into uncommon beauty. This family show for all ages will be at the Weinberg Center for the Arts in Frederick, Maryland, on Friday, April 22, 2022, at 6:00 PM.

Tickets are $30 for adults, $25 for seniors & military, and $15 for children. Tickets may be purchased online at WeinbergCenter.org, by calling the box office at 301-600-2828, or in person at 20 West Patrick Street.

Acrobuffos, Seth Bloom and Christina Gelsone, are the creators, writers, and performers of Air Play. Seth and Christina met at a circus in Afghanistan, became engaged while street performing in Scotland, married in China, and occasionally go home to New York City. Specializing in non-verbal physical theater and comedy, Seth and Christina have created seven shows together, competed in international circus festivals, performed in over 28 countries, headlined at the Big Apple Circus, and were even featured on a postage stamp. Air Play is a visual poem, using no words. Just as a poem may have no literal story, Air Play is open to interpretation. The Acrobuffos have performed across the USA and around the globe, from the southernmost opera house in the world in Chile, to London's Royal Festival Hall, Melbourne's State Theater, and Shanghai's Grand Theatre. Around the world, audiences thrill to the wonder and discovery of Air Play as bold reminders of their own childhood and growing up, of friendship, sibling rivalry, loss, and memory.
