Charles Ross has made a name for himself headlining a series of one-man shows across the globe, from London's West End to the Sydney Opera House. Hailing from Canada, Ross got his start in theatre in college. From there, he began to perform at Fringe Festivals across Canada, exercising his creative muscle and attempting crazy and wacky performances. His first one man show, One Man Star Wars, catapulted him to fame and has been officially endorsed by Lucasfilm. With the worldwide success of that first show Ross started to tour with new material and One Man Lord of the Rings was born. The show was a hit in major cities around the world, including a stint off-Broadway in New York City. Recent additions to his one man show catalogue include One-Man Pride and Prejudice, Batman, Avengers and Stranger Things.
