Toad the Wet Sprocket, started over three decades ago, and continues to make new music and tour with the same independent spirit. Their success is attributed to their dedicated fan base, whose unwavering support has been crucial. In their recent releases and live performances, the band has stayed true to their roots while evolving their sound. Toad the Wet Sprocket, consisting of founding members Glen Phillips, Todd Nichols, and Dean Dinning, is known for creating meaningful and accessible music filled with introspective lyrics and catchy melodies. The band gained recognition in the late 1980s with their self-released debut album. Toad's third studio album, Fear, followed in 1991 and included their multi-format iconic hit singles All I Want and Walk on the Ocean, and was certified RIAA Platinum further solidifying the band's popularity and mainstream success. Despite a break in the late 1990s, the band reunited in 2006 and have continued to perform together ever since. Toad released New Constellation in 2013, followed by Starting Now in 2021, reaffirming their signature sound and garnering critical acclaim.
