FREDERICK, MD, September 27, 2023 — Ensemble Sangineto will bring fresh arrangements of traditional Irish, Scottish, Breton & Italian tunes, as well as original compositions, to New Spire Arts Friday, October 27, 2023 at 7:30 PM.

Ensemble Sangineto was formed in 2000 by twins Adriano and Caterina Sangineto, children of the well-known harp and psaltery maker Michele Sangineto. Over the years this project has evolved and taken up new challenges thanks to the contribution of other musicians. At present the former core of Ensemble Sangineto is completed by the artistic contribution of Jacopo Ventura, guitarist and bouzouki player. Ensemble Sangineto is an eclectic band which blends skillfully ancient harmonies and sonorities with modern rhythms. The wide-ranging musical experiences of the individual members converge to create fresh and sparkling arrangements of traditional Irish, Scottish, Breton & Italian tunes and original compositions that display influences from many varied musical genres ranging from classical to folk, from Gregorian chant to musical, from pop to Celtic music.
