PUSH Physical Theatre has received critical acclaim worldwide for their unique and groundbreaking approach to theater. Their performances have been described as "mesmerizing" and "spellbinding," leaving audiences both inspired and profoundly moved. "Generic Male" is no exception, as it delves into universal themes that resonate with people of all backgrounds. This multi-award-winning Off-Broadway show is a powerful and thought-provoking performance that explores the complexities of masculinity, identity, and vulnerability. With a blend of physicality, humor, and raw emotion, PUSH Physical Theatre takes audiences on a journey that challenges traditional notions of what it means to be a man in today's world. "Generic Male" is the winner of the "International Fringe Encore Series", Three "Best of the Fest" awards as well as "Critics Choice Best Show" at Orlando Fringe and "Outstanding Production" at Ottawa Fringe, a "Jenny" in Winnipeg and "Media Pick" with a 5 out of 5 star review in Edmonton have made PUSH Physical Theatre's masculinity satire an international sensation.
